PeaceSeekers holds educational events, public witnesses, and citizen campaigns urging non-violent diplomatic solutions rather than use of military force as a solution to problems of civil, ethnic, religious and economic conflicts. It continues to be a consistent humanitarian voice against war, and for effective nation building and reconstruction war-torn regions. It is against military occupation and the indiscriminate use of killer drones.

PeaceSeekers share a vision of global peace characterized by justice, human dignity, respect, and compassion for all people.

They support providing international humanitarian aid, Improving domestic security without sacrificing civil liberties and freedoms, and providing leadership in the promotion of human rights, individual freedoms and economic opportunity.

PeaceSeeker programs include film series, lectures, demonstrations and other activities designed to inform, inspire and empower citizen activists.
