Welcome to the 5th annual Visionary Peace Youth Art Exhibition! We invite young artists to create their vision of a peaceful world. The artwork is intended to foster a dialogue with older generations and encourage an intergenerational response to create a more peaceful world.

Here’s how it works: Youth from K-12 paint, draw, create images that answer the questions: What does peace look like? What does peace mean to you? All artwork and descriptions will be on display at The Delaware Contemporary Art Museum on the Riverfront during PeaceWeek Delaware from September, 20-26 2020. Art Opening September 20, 2020 1:00-2:00 p.m. as part of PeaceWeek DE.

This year’s prompts include:
- Students create artwork about peace—whatever that means to them.
- What does peace look like?
- What does a peaceful world look like to your students?

General Guidelines:
Artwork should be positive, colorful, inspiring messages and artwork that answers - What is your vision of a peaceful world? and - What does peace look like?
- Artwork and several sentence artist statement should be mounted on black paper and fit in a 12 x 16 or 16 x 20 inch frame.
- This exhibit strives to continue an intergenerational dialogue and response.
- Each artwork needs to be accompanied by a 2-3 sentence description of the artist’s vision.
- The artwork should be submitted to:

Pacem in Terris
401 N. West St
Wilmington, DE 19801

All submission guidelines can be found at:
www.depaceminterris.org/project/youth-peace-art/

A number of artworks will be selected to be part of our Traveling Peace Youth Art Exhibition.