

Pacem in Terris 50th Anniversary:

100 Years of Peace and Justice Speaker Series

100 Years of Peace and Justice addresses the major peace and justice related issues of the last 50 years (what society has accomplished), and looks forward to what needs to be accomplished in the next 50. Our hope is that this series will help us all take stock of where we are and what we need to do in these troubling times. Our sixth speaker in the series is Bill Frelick, Director, Refugee Rights Program at Human Rights Watch where he monitors, investigates, and documents human rights abuses against refugees, asylum seekers, and internally displaced persons, and advocates for the rights and humanitarian needs.

Bill Frelick

September 19 – Speaking on:

Humanitarian Rights for All

Bill Frelick is Director, Refugee Rights Program at Human Rights Watch. He monitors, investigates, and documents human rights abuses against refugees, asylum seekers, and internally displaced persons, and advocates for the rights and humanitarian needs of all categories of forcibly displaced persons around the world. Before joining Human Rights Watch, Frelick directed Amnesty International USA's refugee program and the US Committee for Refugees (USCR), which he served for 18 years. He was the editor of USCR's annual World Refugee Survey and monthly Refugee Reports. Frelick has traveled to refugee sites throughout the world and is widely published. He taught in the Middle East from 1979-1983 and was co-coordinator of the Asian Center of Clergy and Laity Concerned from 1976-1979. Frelick has a B.A. from Oberlin College and an M.A. from Columbia University.
